Welcome to the Guide.

We hope you learn a lot!

Introduction

Hello brides and groom!

Thank you for downloading our Expert Advice eBook!

We have compiled advice from wedding experts around the Quad Cities to help give you some insight on how to pick the best vendor in various categories. Each vendor has a 2 page spread packed full of advice to help you on your wedding planning journey.

Some things you will learn:

- 3 tips from each vendor on how to best research and select someone in their vendor category
- The latest trends in the Quad City's wedding industry
- Common mistakes that people make when choosing their vendors
- Some final thoughts and advice from vendors
- A little bit of info about each vendor's business

This guide is meant to be open information to anyone who could use the advice, so please feel free to share with anyone who you think could really use some extra tips in picking out their wedding vendors.

If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions about the guide, my email will be listed on the next page. We are always looking for ways to help make this guide more useful to our brides and grooms!

CHOOSING YOUR WEDDING VENUE

With Juli Sundholm of Tanglewood Hills Pavilion

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples searching for their venue?

Tip 1:

When you find the right place you will know it, don't let anyone try to convince you that their place is right for you.

Tip 2:

Make sure they answer all your questions to your satisfaction.

Tip 3:

Find out if there will be a staff member for the entire event. You want to make sure you have someone there in case of any problems or questions.

What are the latest trends in wedding venues?

Trends for the banquet hall tend to lean towards the latest decorating ideas. Right now, it is the rustic decor.

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting their venue?

Couples don't ask enough questions before booking. You want to make sure you know all the costs involved, including how much gratuity or service charge will be added to your event.

Some locations charge this on the bottom line and some charge on the food and bar and some charge on just the food. This makes a big difference in your invoice total. Get an estimate before signing on the dotted line.

Final Thoughts for Couples?

Try not to get overwhelmed by the details. Think about the big picture. You want to enjoy this day, not stress about everything. Make sure to take time to soak everything in, the day will pass quickly, so have FUN!

What Makes Tanglewood Hills Pavilion Unique Among Wedding Venues?

We are a family run business, so you will always be dealing with Juli or Donna, and we are always in attendance throughout your event.

We have a lot of flexibility with our venue since we don't have to adhere to normal corporate policies. We will go the extra mile to make sure that you have the event of your dreams!

CHOOSING YOUR WEDDING PLANNER

With Heather Chance of Beginnings By Chance

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples looking to select a wedding planner?

Tip 1:

Hire one! Without an event planner (specifically day of) someone still has to do the work, and it usually ends up being someone that should be enjoying your day with you (ex: mom, sister, etc)

Tip 2:

You get what you pay for: with social media, anyone can claim to be a business owner and charge lower prices but they may not be as reputable as their social media makes them sound.

Tip 3:

Ask for references. These can be from past brides or other vendors that have worked with that vendor. Any reputable company will not be afraid of you checking on their past work.

What are the latest trends in wedding planning?

I don't like to refer to "trends" so much. My reason for this is that I think every wedding is unique and a couple should do what is important to them regardless of what anyone else is doing. It's about making it personal and meaningful and special to you as a couple.

I think that actually is the trend, is that people are caring less about media and outside influence and sticking with what's important to them and their families.

My favorite trend, which isn't new but is still growing strong, is the combining of families during a ceremony. Such as a sand ceremony or something similar to join the children coming into the marriage with the step-parent.

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting a wedding planner?

The biggest mistake, in my opinion, is not hiring a planner at all. As mentioned before, at least for the day of. It's important that you get to enjoy your day and that your family and friends get to enjoy it with you. With a planner, everyone is able to enjoy without any pressures of running your day.

Final Thoughts for Couples?

It's your special day, you want it to be stress free, you deserve for it to be stress free. Let someone else worry about the details for you. The day goes so fast as it is, and you don't want to give up time enjoying it because you're refilling napkins.

What Makes Beginnings By Chance Unique Among Wedding Planners?

What's unique about Beginnings by Chance is that we don't do pricing packages. We customize every single package for every single couple. We know that every couple and their families prefer different levels of participation on the big day, and we customize depending on that need and desire.

CHOOSING YOUR WEDDING ATTIRE

With Diane Niebuhr of Hope's Bridal

What are the top 3 tips you have for brides searching for their wedding attire?

Tip 1:

Consider your vision for your wedding style and budget. You will find a wide variety of design options and pricing when looking for wedding attire. You can zero in on a small number of vendors to check out if you have a clear sense of what you are looking for and how much you are able to spend on that part of your wedding.

Tip 2:

Consider experience and reputation. A bridal shop with many years in the business will offer you peace of mind because of proven service and product. Ask questions and trust your gut on what feels right. This is an industry where personal touch really matters!

Tip 3:

Get some inspiration online! Before calling to book an appointment at a bridal shop, explore their website and/or social media to see examples of their work and the types of designs they offer.

What are the latest trends in wedding attire?

There is something for everyone! One important trend we see in bridal is COLOR. While white and ivory will never be out of fashion, more than half of our brides are choosing colors with a bit more "punch" such as champagnes, blushes, even greys and details in black! After many years of fitted lace styles being the leading trend, many of our designers and brides are starting to gravitate toward fuller silhouettes like a-lines and ballgowns. We are seeing more variety in fabric choices as well, with simple silky satins and heavy beading starting to accent or even replace lace. While strapless necklines are still prevalent, more designs all the time feature beautiful straps or sleeves. Lastly, our brides want a statement back to their gown. Low or sheer backs offer a sexy style, and unique trains provide a couture feel to a gown.

For bridesmaids, the biggest trend we see is allowing bridesmaids to choose their own style of dress in the same color. We see a lot of sequins and flowy long chiffon styles lately!

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting their wedding attire?

How to avoid three of the most common stresses when selecting your bridal gown:

It's important for brides to carefully consider who they bring with them when they are shopping for a wedding gown. Very opinionated people and large groups almost always lead to unneeded stress for the bride. Choose 1-4 people who will be supportive and keep things fun!

Once you fall in love with your gown and say "yes" to the dress, trust that choice and stop looking at other options, which will just confuse you. You have plenty of other decisions to make; you don't need the added stress of second guessing yourself!

While Pinterest is amazing for inspiration, it can lead to unrealistic expectations. Keep in mind that many pictures you see there are photo-shopped or from weddings with million dollar budgets. You can achieve an amazingly beautiful and REAL wedding, but it may look a little different from the pictures you find!

Final Thoughts for Couples?

It is such an amazing experience to be a part of so many families' special moments through the years. We constantly have brides coming in with their moms who were Hope's brides themselves- Hope's truly has become a family tradition!

Please visit either of our locations if we can be a part of YOUR big day! We want to wish you many blessings on your wedding planning and future marriage!

What Makes Hope's Bridal Unique Among Bridal Shops?

Hope's Bridal opened on a farm near Cedar Rapids in 1972, and Mark and Diane Niebuhr purchased it in 1985. They raised their three girls in the business, and all of them are still integral parts of the family business. They opened a location in the Village of East Davenport in 1993. Diane is constantly back and forth between her two stores, and is always accessible to her brides to make sure they have the best Hope's experience possible that she has been striving to provide for over 30 years.

Hope's has continued to evolve through the years, maintaining its place as the leader in bridal fashion in Eastern Iowa and its outstanding national reputation in the bridal industry. You will find a fantastic variety of designers at Hope's, from the most popular bridal lines such as Maggie Sottero, Essense of Australia, and Allure to exclusive designers you won't find anywhere else in the area like couture Stephen Yearick, known for its over-the-top blingy creations, and customizable Emmaline Bridal, offering romantic boho styles. Hope's always has sample gowns on sale under $500, but caters mainly to brides who budget in the $1,000-2,500 range for their gown.

Besides the gown, Hope's Bridal has everything else for your wedding attire, from accessories to bridesmaids, to mothers' and flower girl dresses, to tuxedo rentals. It is an honor to help you bring your wedding vision to life and be a small part of your special day!

CHOOSING YOUR VIDEOGRAPHER

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples looking to select a wedding videographer?

Tip 1:

Budget for your videographer from the beginning. If you really want to have video, then set aside the right amount and get the videographer that best suits your needs. I see too many couples who tack the videographer onto the budget as an afterthought because they have a couple extra hundred dollars in the budget when everything is said and done.

I'm not saying you can't get a good videographer for $500. That was our price a few years ago. What I am saying is that a $500 videographer may not be a good fit for your wedding and you won't really have many other options to pick from.

Tip 2:

Make sure to ask the right questions. A good videographer will be in touch with you before the wedding to gauge your expectations and get information on any special shots you may want.

Good questions to ask:

- Where will you be standing during the ceremony?
- How many cameras do you use?
- Do you have wireless audio?
- Do you conduct interviews with guests, wedding party, etc?
- What do you do during downtime during my wedding?
- What extras do you include in your package?

Tip 3:

Determine what is important to you. Make a list of these things before contacting videographers. Are you looking for someone to just shoot and capture your day, or do you want a lot of extras like a trailer, interviews, still shots, etc.?

Knowing what you want will help you in finding the best fit!

What are the latest trends in wedding videography?

Drone technology is becoming huge for videographers. This allows for cool aerial shots of the venue, ceremony, etc.

It is becoming so prominent that we are looking to invest in one in the next couple wedding seasons.

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting a videographer?

The biggest mistake I see couples making with video is adding the service as an afterthought. Video is seen as a luxury where the photographer is more of the necessity.

The result? Awesome photos and ordinary video. Not that the videographers don't do a good job, but there is less direction for special shots from the couple. The couple has specific photos in mind that they know will be cool.

Plan for video and do the same thing. Think about specific shots that will be cool to see in your wedding trailer. Warn people that you want to do an interview that they will be doing so or they will be caught off guard. A planned interview is usually better, plus you have more time to sweet talk your wedding party or grandparents into speaking for your video.

Final Thoughts for Couples?

Give video a go for your wedding, and make sure you budget and plan for it. You will find a better match for your wedding in doing so, and your video will turn out infinitely better!

What Makes Rehash Media Unique Among Wedding Videographers?

At Rehash Media, LLC we like to create inclusive packages that make it easy for couples to book. That way there is no time piecing together parts of an a la carte package. We also include DVDs for the couple and each set of parents, whether divorced or together, included in each package. We know weddings are a family affair, and having just 1 copy is never enough!

Rehash also guarantees that our DVDs will work or we will make you a new set, free of charge. Things have to be able to work!

One other cool thing we do is keep your footage on our harddrive. We never delete anything in case you need more DVD copies or want a new creative piece made from the material (example: vows trailer). We are here to serve you and make your day the best it can be!

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples shopping for their invitations?

Tip 1:

Work with a professional! You're only doing this once, but we do it all the time. Let us help you choose the right invitations for your special day. We'll work with you on everything, from finding your style to wording, and we'll do it all with your budget in mind.

Tip 2:

Spend some time identifying what style you like ... traditional, vintage, funky, modern. We can help you find or create the perfect invitation faster if we know more about you and your event.

Tip 3:

Keep in mind that with most invitations, fonts, ink colors and wording can all be customized. So if you like a design, but hate the font, no worries ... we will find the look you love.

What are the latest trends in invitations?

Laser cut wraps and pockets are a beautiful new way to add more romance to your invitations.

Hand-scripted fonts are also popular right now.

We are also seeing lots of brides opt for traditional styles with a twist from Crane, William Arthur and Vera Wang.

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting invitations?

Using an online vendor doesn't give you any recourse if you're not happy, and they certainly won't tell you if you're making a mistake. For example, it's not okay to include registry information on your invitations! Your invitations set the tone for your special day ... you don't want an etiquette mistake to be the thing your guests remember most!

Final Thoughts for Couples?

If you're out of town or just too busy to stop by, we can work with you via email or telephone. Just let us know what you're thinking, and we'll be happy to email pictures of some ideas for you.

Hope to hear from you soon!

What Makes The Plaid Rabbit Unique Among Invitation Designers?

We want you to feel comfortable and happy at The Plaid Rabbit. You are free to stop in and browse or to schedule a consultation ... it's about what makes you feel best.

We have a wide selection of invitations, and we love helping you find or create the look that fits your budget and style perfectly!

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples looking for wedding transportation?

Tip 1:

Always keep in mind, you get what you pay for. On the biggest day of your life, the last thing you want to have to deal with is issues like your transportation from your ceremony to the reception never showing up or cancelling on you last minute all because you decided to go the cheapest route. Prices for transportation services reflect the service you will receive. Always look for reliable companies with great online reviews! As well, safety is an extremely important aspect of running a transportation company that many subpar or “cheap” companies often overlook. Always look for companies, such as ours, that have the appropriate insurance and up-to-date inspections.

Tip 2:

Consider the location of the company you’re working with. For instance, we are the only transportation company in the Quad Cities with a brick and mortar location where you can stop in and see us, so you know we’re here to stay! The convenience of being able to meet with the staff and check out our office anytime during our business hours is a great perk.

Tip 3:

Make sure you have planned and prepared thoroughly. We’re always here to help you figure out an itinerary and find places to go for drinks or pictures, but we always suggest getting a time line together to make sure you have the correct times, amount of time you need transportation for, and places you need to be to make things go as smoothly as possible! Always be aware of how quickly dates fill up during peak wedding season for transportation companies, book well in advance to secure the date and vehicles you want. Planning everything thoroughly will help eliminate the stress of trying to find last minute transportation!

What are the latest trends in wedding transportation?

It's becoming more and more popular to have the photographer ride along with the wedding party to capture great candid shots! As we've found after installing them on our own vehicles, LED lighting and awesome sound systems are certainly sought after and definitely add to the experience of a whole new way to travel in style.

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting their wedding transportation?

Once again, you get what you pay for. Opting for the cheaper company to save money elsewhere may seem like a good idea until you're left at the ceremony with no way to get to your reception! Always research the companies you are considering to make sure they're safe, reliable, and have good reviews!

Final Thoughts for Couples?

Booking a limousine or party bus for your wedding day can be a ton of fun for the whole wedding party and we highly recommend either as the best methods of transport available! For the biggest day of your life, we certainly hope you choose our company to cater to your safe transportation. However, if you do not, please don't hesitate to contact us and we can make sure you've gone with one of our great competitors, rather than a company that can't be trusted.

What Makes The City Limo & Party Bus Unique Among Wedding Transportation Vendors?

As The City Limo & Party Bus has been in business for over 8 years, you can rest assured we'll always be there for you! Our drivers are fun, kind, and professional and our vehicles are all up-to-date on all DOT inspections, licensing, and insurance, as we pride ourselves on our great service, reliability, and trustworthiness. Our vehicles are cleaned before every job and are always appropriate for all ages! We are the only transportation company in the Quad Cities with a brick and mortar location, our office is located conveniently in downtown Davenport and we always welcome clients to stop in and chat with our friendly staff with any questions or concerns.

CHOOSING YOUR MAKEUP ARTIST

With Brittany Jacobs of Brittany Chevelle Makeup Artist

BRITTANY CHEVELLE

Website

www.qcmakeupartist.com

Phone

309-373-2572

Email

brittanychevelle@gmail.com

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples looking for a makeup artist?

Tip 1:

One of the most important and vital pieces of information you should ask for when looking for a makeup artist is credentials and experience. Check out their reviews, ask friends and family who they used and how their experience was. Don't be afraid to ask the artist what other experience they have, and to provide additional details on their services and their terms.

Tip 2:

Pick an artist whose work you love and that you click with. When it comes to beauty and makeup, it is subjective to each individual person. Make sure to really dive deep in their portfolio of past work so that you can feel confident in the quality they will provide to you on your wedding day. It's also important that you schedule a trial run to make sure that you are not only on the same page, but that you both have a good connection. You will be spending a good part of your wedding day with your hair and makeup crew, so you want to make sure they are fun and/or relaxed.

Tip 3:

If you love an artist, BOOK THEM ASAP!!

Wedding vendors book up fast and clients often forget that a confirmation of an open date doesn't mean that the date will be held on their behalf. To make sure that you have the artist, or vendors, that you love and prefer, it is vital that you get a signed contract immediately. This guarantees the date will be held for you and nobody else can reserve them during that time. A contract for services protects not only you as a client, but the artist as well. Be careful of beauty providers and even other wedding vendors who do not give you a contract to look over.

What are the latest trends in wedding makeup?

The two biggest trends for this season are natural brows and glowy skin. Last year, brides were requesting a smokey eye, heavily filled in brows and lots and lots of contour!

This year it's all about going back to the basics. Instagrams brows are out while natural, full brows are in!

Brides also want that glowy, bright skin. Often times contour can go wrong and give a very gray or dull look to the skin when done incorrectly. We are seeing a lot more bride ask for a dewy, glowy complexion.

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting their makeup artist?

Makeup artistry has become a profitable and growing market in the past few years with Instagram and Youtube. Unfortunately, there are often beauty enthusiast who have a large following and who can do their makeup well, but don't know how to do makeup for other skin tones, types, and ages. That is why it is important to ask for credentials and experience.

Final Thoughts for Couples?

Don't just wait for the day of the wedding to primp and get pretty. Beautiful makeup always starts with beautiful skin. This is definitely something that the Bride and Groom can experience together. I suggest visiting an esthetician to address any skin concerns and problems and start on a skincare regimen so together you are able to get your skin in tip top shape months before the big day!

What Makes Brittany Chevelle Markup Artist Unique Among Makeup Artists?

When working with my clients, I like to ask them what features they love and how they normally do their own makeup. It is important to me that I focus on the features that they like and make sure that the way I apply makeup is unique to them, while making sure they still look like themselves. I try to play up each person's features individuality, so I am not doing the same looks on each person, but really focusing on what makes each person look beautiful in their own special ways.

CHOOSING YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

With Sarah Siler of Sarah Siler Photography

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples searching for their wedding photographer?

Tip 1:

Base your decision off the style of photography that fits your style.

Tip 2:

Cheap Photography doesn't always mean good.

Tip 3:

Find the photographer that best fits your needs, ask lots of questions!

What are the latest trends in wedding photography?

I would say there are always going to be "trends": I try not to be part of the trend, rather than be myself!

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples searching for a photo booth?

Tip 1:

It is your day, plan it the way you want it to be.

Tip 2:

There is no right or wrong time to have the photo booth at your event. Each event is different and we will make the best of it, no matter what time slot we are there.

Tip 3:

We want to entertain your guests and have fun with them. Our customer service is one of a kind. We like to be able to laugh with your guests, help them select their props and guide them with different options of poses in the booth.

What are the latest trends in wedding photobooths?

We are seeing that on the East Coast and the West Coast, that people are starting to go with a no print option. This means that vendors are not printing as many photo strips, and all of the pictures are being uploaded to social media or onto a flash drive.

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting their photo booth?

When couples do not select the memory book as an option with their event, they are missing a huge part of the fun that happened on their day. The guests have so much fun sharing their photo strips with the wedding couple and writing fun notes in the memory book. I have had several brides come back to me and tell me the favorite part of their day is their memory book that we made for them.

Final Thoughts for Couples?

There is no right or wrong way to plan your wedding, plan it the way you have always dreamed it should be. We want you to have the best day of your life and be able to look back and say "that is exactly what I wanted". When looking for a photo booth company, make sure you do your due diligence and read reviews, look at some of the work they have done, and meet personally with the photo booth company.

Understandably, weddings are very expensive and most have a budget that they need to keep, but the cheapest is not always the best. Remember it is your day, and make sure that everyone is on board with helping you make your dreams come true.

Our customer service is like no other, we want all of the wedding couple's guests to have a great time! We want to make the photo booth as fun and stress-free as possible, so when we have those shy or timid guests visit the photo booth for the first time, we want them to feel welcome.

Once they have used the photo booth for the first time, they realize how fun it is and keep coming back. We enjoy what we do and we love making people laugh and have a great time. We take pride in our sleek design of photo booth and want to show it off as much as possible.

CHOOSING YOUR WEDDING DJ

With Donnie Haggerty of Double H Entertainment

What are the top 3 tips you have for couples searching for their DJ?

Tip 1:

The most elegant chandelier, and the tastiest food won't save you from a disaster caused by going cheap on the DJ/entertainment.

Tip 2:

Hire your entertainment only after reading reviews or referrals.

Tip 3:

Your entertainment essentially becomes your wedding reception "planner", you should consider trusting the advice given from someone who does this every week.

What are the latest trends in wedding DJs?

Up lighting - these are very popular, and they add a touch of class & elegance to almost any room/banquet hall.

Dollar Dash - something to do other than the dollar dance, please feel free to give me a call to explain. We can't let the secret out to the public!

What are some of the biggest mistakes couples make when selecting their DJ?

We get several calls a year saying that they wish they would have gone with someone they trusted and not with the least expensive. Take a little bit of time to get to know your DJ.

Final Thoughts for Couples?

Try not to sweat the small things, the most important thing to remember is, at the end of the day, you are now married to your dream girl/guy! Have a budget that you need to keep, but the cheapest is not always the best. Remember it is your day, and make sure that everyone is on board with helping you make your dreams come true.

What Makes Double H Entertainment Unique Among Wedding DJs?

With over 25 years of playing music for people, you can imagine that I have seen just about anything you can imagine. We are prepared and ready for anything that could potentially go wrong.
